Central District Health Board to revisit districtwide public health order on Tuesday, December 15; meeting start time moved to 3:30 pm

Ada County, ID — The Central District Board of Health will meet again on Tuesday, December 15 at 3:30 pm. As part of its agenda, the Board will discuss the draft districtwide public health order which has been under consideration for multiple weeks. The Board was set to discuss the draft order at its meeting on December 8, but safety concerns over hundreds of protestors at CDH headquarters and at the homes of two Board of Health members forced the Board to abruptly cancel its meeting just 15 minutes into the agenda.

The draft public health order remains as written and shared with the public on Friday, December 4, 2020. Review the draft public health order at <https://cdh.idaho.gov/about-boardofhealth-meetings.php>

Meeting Details:

- Tuesday, December 15, 2020, at 3:30 pm
- Meeting to be held virtually with live streaming via CDH's YouTube page
 - An on-site public viewing room is available with limited seating at CDH Headquarters: 707 N. Armstrong Place, Boise, ID 83704. Face coverings must be worn and participants must adhere to specific requirements outlined on the Board of Health Meetings webpage. Physical distancing of at least 6-feet must also be followed.

The public notice and meeting agenda, posted earlier this afternoon, are available on the Board meetings page at <https://www.cdh.idaho.gov/about-boardofhealth-meetings.php>.

Written Public Comments

Written public comments for this meeting will be accepted up until Monday, December 14 at 3:30 pm to allow time for the Board to review. Written comments can be sent to boh@cdh.idaho.gov or delivered to 707 N. Armstrong Pl., Boise, ID 83704, Attention Board of Health / Russ Duke.

The Board is also scheduled for a regular meeting on Friday, December 18 at 8:30 am. The Friday meeting is part of the Board's annual schedule, outside of COVID-19 response, and will involve regular public health business. Once set, the agenda will be posted to the Board Meetings web page at
